

Come and Sing!

Saturday 25th July 2009

Sheldon Open Air Theatre

conductor Roy Nicholson

2pm rehearse

8pm perform

prom
from scratch

Do you love to sing?

come and join a large choir for a one-off event in the magical setting of the Sheldon open air theatre for a family-friendly celebration fun for you and fun for the audience conducted by Roy Nicholson veteran conductor of many scratch performances member of the Sing for Pleasure movement former member of BBC Symphony Chorus

an afternoon of rehearsal first half of the evening - performance by the scratch choir second half - audience participation it doesn't matter if you don't sing regularly.

the ability to read music is helpful but definitely not essential.

for registration

return the slip below to register choir membership will be on a first come, first serve basis
