Reading the Landscape

A retreat exploring the meaning of place and landscape, especially borders and thresholds, in our religious experience. Pausing to reflect and read the land with its buildings, cultivation and buried history. Making connections in the liminal spaces of our interior landscape.

Esther de Waal is rooted in the Welsh Borders whose landscape, along with many monastic traditions, has shaped her own spirituality.

5pm Monday 28th February - 10am Friday 4th March. £290.

- silent retreat
- daily offices, one Eucharist

Rambling with God

Walks form the core of this retreat, around 5 - 8 miles and mainly in silence. The focus is on walking mindfully and developing an awareness of God within and around. Each day includes a reflective gathering of the inner and outer experiences of the day.

Ian Sim and Peter Hayes are both ministers with experience of local pastorates and a shared love of Sheldon and the great outdoors.

5pm Monday 11th - 10am Friday 15th July. £290.

- daily walks (not strenuous)
- daily gathering, one Eucharist
- partial silence

Theophony

In the beginning was sound ... An acoustic tapestry weaving threads of chant and jazz into the fabric of Celtic prayer, liturgy and theology of work. How might we discern the sound of God as we seek to listen and hear more deeply?
... through sound into silence.

Brendan O'Malley is a one-time Cistercian monk and recently retired university chaplain and lecturer. He is a canon of St David's Cathedral and author of several books focusing on Celtic spirituality and liturgy.

5pm Monday 10th - 10am Friday 14th October. £290.

- daily offices and Eucharist
- mostly silence

Photography, Poetry and Vision

A retreat offering space to enjoy and explore imagination – the divine creativity in us all. Worship, reading poetry, making photographs and reflecting on our pictures are structured to open up layers of vision in the landscape around us and within ourselves. No formal knowledge of photography or poetry is required.

Robert Cooper is a photographer and priest in Durham. Barbara Vellacott creates opportunities for people to discover the life and music that is in poetry.

5pm Monday 31st October - 10am Friday 4th November. £290.

- partial silence
- daily prayers, one Eucharist
- making photos, reading poetry

At the Burning Bush

When better than the season of Advent to ponder the divine name and respond to the divine call? A visit to Mount Sinai has honed Angela's reflections on the holy mountain. As Moses takes off his sandals, so we explore what it means to stand on holy ground.

Writer and broadcaster Angela Tilby is vicar of St Bene't's Cambridge and former Vice-Principal of Westcott House Cambridge.

5pm Monday 5th - 10am Friday 9th December. £290.

- daily offices and Eucharist
- silent preached retreat

about retreats

We like to offer a good mix of retreat formats to suit different temperaments. The simple chapels, well-kept grounds and observant hospitality all go to make Sheldon an ideal environment for all types of retreat. We leave a reasonable amount of free time to complement the input from retreat leaders and any other group activities. The rebuilding of the Long Barn means numbers will be restricted during the early part of the year but autumn retreats will benefit from the new en-suite bedrooms.

"... other people have taken care of the 'doing', so I can just 'be' for a bit. Thank you so much for your call to stewardship and service."

... workshops ...

Myers Briggs Basic

An accessible and well structured resource for understanding how people approach spirituality, work and relationships in such different ways. Valuable personal and professional training for anyone who lives or works with others.

Enneagram (part 2) Presence & self-forgetting

The pervasive type-based habits of attention that are embedded in our thinking act as a way of forgetting Presence - the gift of collected spiritual awareness. ... for people in ministry ...

introduction

The Society of Mary and Martha was set up especially to provide support resources for people in ministry. The Sheldon Community has built up a unique body of experience and expertise in this essential field. The demands on people in ministry and their households are unusual and often not well recognised or understood.

We're always happy to talk through on the phone what might suit you best, and we'll always be straight with you if our resources are not suitable.

Good maintenance is important for keeping body and soul together, so you don't have to have problems to come here. If you know you need something but are not sure what, then we're a good place to start. We have plenty of experience helping people get back on their feet when things have gone badly wrong. This may be with physical or mental health, faith, vocation or ministry. Don't be afraid to ask, however bad things feel for you.

Our style is straightforward, respectful and effective. We won't give you any psychobabble and our experience is that change is often easier than people expect.

Ministry Eligibility

- any denomination
- ordained
- full time stipendiary lay worker
- retired (from either of the above)
- spouses (independently or with ministerial partner)

Ministry Discount

- Resources on ministry pages quoted at ministry rates
- people in ministry deduct 20% from all other events/resources

Our fees are already below the real costs of provision, sometimes by a substantial amount. However, we do not wish finance to be a bar for anyone in ministry who needs our specialist resources. Please check other sources of funding first. If you still cannot afford the full amount please indicate on your booking form the amount of support you need.

"With no expectations put on me it allows me to relax, forget for a moment my struggles, then look at them peacefully and within a place that exudes loving care."

Linhay Lodges

"It is the only place I know where I can be completely alone and uninterrupted and therefore able to do all kinds of pressing things: sleep, pray, sing in the bath, write letters, listen to God, eat delicious food not cooked by me, lay down my load, chat with [a community member], attend early morning prayers, walk on the hill, enjoy stunning scenery, dream and be 100% myself in an atmosphere of Godly love and welcome."

- no ministering to other guests
- peace and quiet after 10.30pm

Important notes

The rebuilding of the Long Barn is due for completion October 2011. In the first part of the year

- there will be building work in progress. We will keep disruption to a minimum but expect relevant noise etc.
- there will be fewer rooms available so book early to avoid disappointment

From the autumn onwards

- all 9 bedrooms in the Long Barn will be en-suite with large windows. The Pound House has 3 shared and 3 en-suite.

We welcome you into the home of an active Community. It is often very quiet, but grass is mowed, children play and occasional big events are held. We always try to ensure you are free from hassle but can't guarantee no noise.

Deposits

Quiet Days : pay in full at booking.
All other bookings : £50 deposit.
Deposits are not refundable.

Balance

From 2 months before arrival you are committed to payment of the balance. However, to streamline paperwork we do not require the payment to be actually made until 2 weeks before arrival. We reserve the right to re-book your place if you do not send the balance on time.

Cancellation

We strongly recommend that you take out cancellation insurance.

Late cancellations can severely compromise the charity's budget. We don't like asking you for money if you have to cancel your visit, but nor does it feel right to ask Friends to make up the shortfall when suitable cover would have been available. If you decide not to take out insurance you need to be prepared to bear the cost yourself if you cancel within 2 months of the arrival date. If you cannot obtain suitable cover please discuss with us at the time of booking.
